WE MUST SEIZE THE MOMENT!

Imagine walking onto a stage and standing in front of a crowd of 8,000 people in Cuba.

We had the great honor of addressing three different cities in three open-air historic outreaches.

As I walked off the platform the first night, a 73-year old man in a wheelchair negotiated his way across the uneven dirt lot. He intercepted me about 50 yards from the steps of the stage. He said, "Excuse me sir, I would like to have a quick word with you." I said, "I'd be delighted." He went on to say, "Yesterday, my neighbor invited me to come hear an important message here tonight." He paused for a moment, wiped a tear from his eye, and continued. "For years, I didn't believe in God. I was an atheist and was devout to that belief system.

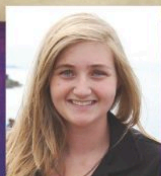

But tonight, my heart has changed entirely. I've made a commitment to Christ for the very first time. I only have one regret, though. "What's that?" I asked. "If only someone had shared the Gospel with me forty or fifty years ago. Perhaps I wouldn't have wasted so much precious time. Perhaps I wouldn't be sitting in this wheelchair." Although I am not at liberty to share his occupation nor can I share with whom he worked, I can say that this man's conversion touched the entire community.

God grants us all opportunities to move through an open door to greatly impact the world around us. When He does, we must seize the moment. Doors open, but they eventually shut. Pray the Lord of the harvest to send workers, before the doors that lead to hundreds of millions of lives are shut.

In 2012, we've traveled over 100,000 miles, preached in six crusades, in five different countries. We've seen over 20,000 people make a first-time decision for Christ. Because of your partnership, thousands of lives heard God's message of hope! On their behalf, THANK YOU!

2013 will be even better!

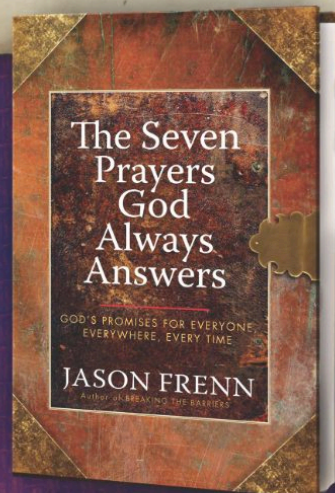

Our three girls: Celina, Chanel, & Jazmin traveled to Asia this year!

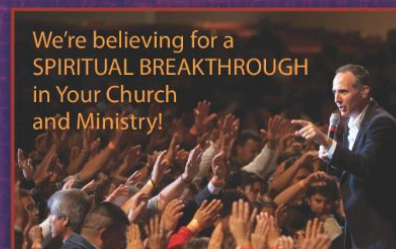

Our oldest daughter Celina went on two separate missions trips this summer. She saw many children come to Christ in Cuba and helped teach Junior High students in China.

Chanel went to the Philippines, evangelized, and handed out the Book of Hope. The Lord opened many doors for her to share the Gospel.

Jazmin traveled to Cuba and Cambodia. She ministered to Cambodian children and saw many people come to Christ in Cuba.
