

Cuba

In March, we are scheduled to return to Cuba for the seventh time. As of this moment, we need $44,500 in order to finish raising the entire budget for the large scale evangelistic outreaches we've been asked to hold. We will preach to thousands, distribute evangelistic books, and travel 1,200 miles across the island nation.

Would you prayerfully consider sending a one-time gift to help us walk through this very important historical door.

POWER TO CHANGE MINISTRIES

Desperate Faith Moves The Hand of God

"I listen to you every night on the radio at 2:00 a.m. The only problem is I'm drunk!" The 38 year old man went on to tell me in the middle of the parking lot just hours before our crusade at the Los Angeles Olympic Auditorium, "I'm an alcoholic, and I need God to break the chains in my life. I need His salvation. I need His miracle working power. I can't live this way any longer."

When the event began, thousands of people had packed into the famous historical venue originally built up for boxing in the 1920's. During the special songs, testimonies, and worship, God was preparing his heart for something life-changing. As I gave the invitation, I happened to look down. He was one of the first people to run to the altar. Something was entirely different about him. He seemed eager to change. He seemed ready to do whatever he needed in order to experience freedom. That condition was what led him to make a commitment along with 719 other people that day. At that moment, he asked Christ into his heart, asked God for forgiveness, and reached out for the power to walk away from his addictions.

Afterward, he came to me at my book table and said, "I feel something totally different. God's power has come over me, and I feel completely free."

Cindee and I have discovered over the years that people experience something miraculous such as deliverance from substances or other vices because they come to the point of being desperate. Desperation leads us to lay our pride aside and follow the only One who can give us true freedom and salvation. Thank you for giving to this outreach! Thank you for praying with us to reach 10,000 people for Christ this year! Thank you for believing!
